EPA-HQ-2019-007461	Mr. Peter Jenkins Counsel	Public Employees for Environmental Responsibility	7/19/2019	EPA-HQ-OECA-FFEO - Federal Facilities Enforcement Office	All documents and communications related to EPA's Enforcement program's adherence to the "Unitary Executive Theory" with respect to enforcement against alleged violations of Federal environmental laws by or at Federal facilities. Specifically, copies of documents generated after January 19, 2017, that address: 1) This statement is found on the Enforcement webpage: https://www.epa.gov/enforcement/overview-enforcement-process-federal-facilities#Enforcement%20Response : "Overview - For those statutes in which EPA has a full range of enforcement authorities, EPA's practice is to address violations at federal facilities in the same manner as private facilities. While EPA has broad administrative enforcement authority, it does not have civil judicial enforcement authority to address environmental violations by a federal facility. This limitation stems from the Department of Justice's (DOJ) interpretation of the Unitary Executive Theory, which prohibits one federal agency from suing another agency in federal court. In contrast, the Unitary Executive Theory does not limit nor prohibit state and tribal regulators, as well as citizen groups from suing another agency in federal court."

Selected FOIA Requests – 07/17/2019-07/24/2019

Provide all documents indicating both when and why that statement was placed on the webpage.

2) Also provide any other documents since January 19, 2017, that the Enforcement program or General Counsel has received, generated or circulated that mention the Unitary Executive Theory with respect to enforcement against alleged violations of Federal environmental laws by Federal facilities, including communications to or from any State enforcement agencies, including, but not limited to, a decision not to join or assist the New Mexico Environment Department in pursuing judicial enforcement against the Department of Defense under the NM Hazardous Waste Act and NMED's RCRA primacy powers for PFAS contamination related to activities at the Cannon and Holloman Air Force Bases.
